BEING A FATHER IS HARD

Of course you love your kids, but sometimes you feel like you just can't do anything right when it comes to this whole parenting thing. It can feel completely overwhelming at times trying to figure out all your children's needs.

Instead of feeling like a super hero, you feel like a super villain.

DON'T GIVE UP

Did you know that research has shown that fathers play a "unique and irreplaceable role in parenting and family?" It's true! What if you could find a group to help you learn some strategies and skills that will help you with your children and family?

HOW WE CAN HELP

Fathers in Families offers small professionally coached and personally-focused interactive support groups in a relaxed atmosphere. At our groups, you will meet other men who are trying to achieve the same as you: to be a better father. Through the group, you'll learn techniques and skills to help you become that super dad you always dreamed you'd be.
